
Down in Syracuse

Riosfanboy registered on Baseball-Fever and told me about this site, I have the same name here as I do on there. I have a blog stickied on there called Down in Syracuse. It is information about the Chiefs and other info in the Jays farm system. I'd like it if someone could make this a sticky for me. I will update this daily or weekly, it depends on what is happening. Feel free to ask me questions about the Chiefs or information on players anywhere in the system.

Awesome - thanks very much, Chiefs 4 Life! It would be great to get info from someone who is knowledgeable about the Jays Farm System - updates on rehab assignments, which young players you think are closest to being ready for the Major Leagues, and whatever else you think is good.

Sorry I haven't been on in a while, just moved into my new house and just got internet. Of course Burnett had his rehab start a while back and all I can say is it went very well. 6 innings I believe with 8 strikeouts, this is all just off the top of my head but I'm sure it is close.
